WIFE SHOT, HOME OF BELMONT'S CLERK GUARDED

Herman Pelz Said that Sleuth's Report Drove Her to Suicide.

MENTIONED A WOMAN

Told Mrs. Pelz that Her Husband Met Stranger in Subway.

tain of the Gates Avenue Precinct was detailed to guard Pelz until the investigation is concluded. The him to believe that Mrs. Pelz and shot

What Coroner Wants to Know .. The Coroner will particularly investi gate the reports of the private detec ive agency that was employed by Mrs early he will send detectives to New to Mrs. Pelz, that her husband was un she was unable to bear children, and reached a period of life when she was really mentally irresponsible. Because I had a specialist attend her. He co soon recover her normal senses." The detective agency involved in th case is the Hamburger Agency at Fulton street and Myrtle avenue. Mr Hamburger to-day told of the manuer in which he was engaged.

Trailed by Detective.

Pelz," he explained, "told me fice." she lived at No. 1839 Brooklyn avenue. and that her husband held a good posttion with Mr. Belmont, She said further that she was convinced, her husband was meeting a woman from New Haven. All she wanted, she said, When Mr. Pelz arrived home that Was confirmation or disproof of this night he and their adopted son, Parry, high he and their adopted son, Parry, was confirmation or disproof of this said down to tea with Mrs. Pear.

him meet his wife in Brooklyn. Our re-port shows that Mr. and Mrs. Pelz had trouble in a restaurant at Red Hook lane and Fulton street because Pelz tried to flirt with two girls sitting 'On Dec. 24, late in the afternoon, I received a report from my men who were trailing Pelz. They said he met a womtrailing Peiz. They said he met a worn-an at the Bridge Subway station. She 18-YEAR-OLDBANKER was about five feet three inches tall weighed about 125 pounds, was pretty a dark cloak, a white checked ekirt and a dark hat with an automo-, Ten Complaints Against Youth

"Pelz went with her to the Grand Central Station on a Subway express, bought her a ticket for New Haven, and after an affectionate farewell put her on

Mrs. Pelz called me up on the telephone. With his brother Salvo, twenty-three When I gave her the description of the years old, at No. 119 St. Mark's place. woman she said her worst foars were He changed his address to Yorkville has been kept up for almost two weeks realized. She said nothing about com- Court prison to-day, when Magistrate calling at the home of Mrs. F. W. banker in two days.

Told of Meeting Woman.

Jesser, No. 1101 East Thirty-fifth street,

Mrs. Pelz, excitedly. "Yes," answered the detective, "Mr. gifts.

"We pay highest cash prices or the entire contents of Houses, Flats and Apartments."

That's the tenor of many announcements printed from day

Purchase and Exchange"

to day in The World's urniture las

MRS. TRAUTMAN AND HER ACCUSER, HOGAN, IN JEFFERSON MARKET COURT TO-DAY (PHOTOGRAPHED ESPECIALLY TO-DAY BY AN EVENING WORLD STAFF PHOTOGRAPHE R.)

PHYSICIAN'S LIFE

Went Directly After Pistol.
Mrs. Peiz started for her home after the way burchased a revolved oddlyn store and proceeded on

I wish you would come up

HELD IN POLICE COURT.

Who Took Money, but Did Not Deliver Jobs.

Blange Militisch, eighteen years old, "I had just received this report when runs a banking and employment office Court prison to-day, when Magistrate Mayo held Biange for examination into the charge of defrauding Johann Dosorties to scout about the neighborhood On Monday afternoon Mrs. Pelz was was the tenth charge against the young The First Letters.

Jesser, No. 1101 East Thirty-fifth street, Brooklyn. Leaving her hostess, she hurried to the room where the telephone was and called up Hamburger's agency.

"Have you any news?" she asked.
"Yes," was the reply, according to her story to her hostess.
"Good or bad?" asked the young wife.

her story to her hostess.

"Good or bad?" asked the young wife.

"You must judge. Your husband was trailed from his office to the Subway station on the Manhattan end of the bridge. There he met a young woman."

"The New Haven woman?" asked Mrs. Pelz, excitedly. times that she never received the

THREATENED BY

BLACK HAND GANG

Police Guard Dr. Dadir-

rian from Blackmailers

Who Demand $10,000.

Demands for $10,000 under pain of death made by the Hunchagist, an Armenian secret society of the Black

Hand order, have caused the police to place under careful guard the town house at No. 625 West One Hundred and Thirteenth street of Dr. Markar

G. Dadirrian, one-time physician to the Sultan and rated among the wealthiest and most prominent Armenians in this

Two patrolmen in uniform stood today in front of the house, which is one door from Riverside Drive. The guard

The First Letters.

The first of the letters was received.

WHO IS THREATENED SOCIETY FOLK OFF BY BLACK HAND.

ing the locality selected for the deposit of the money pointed to the fact that certain desperate characters were engineering the work, and special attention was given to the case.

Second Threat Desperate.

The second letter arrived three days after the first, It said the doctor had only a short time to pay over $10,000 or local taken near the physician's home, and the detail of police stationed there are changed night and day.

Dr. Dadirrian second contents the content of the con

TO SUNNY FRANCE Company Says Policy Had Expired,

Big Crowd at Pier to Cheer Friends on Departure of La Provence.

Catheart; Viscount De Chezelles; Rob- lost his life ten days later. season as a baritone; Mrs. L. Dorigny; vance to an agent of the company. Mrs. Woman sought.

Miss Yvonne Dorigny; Mr. and Mrs.

Beck has a letter from the agent action of the company. Mrs. Maggie is und annals sho had knowledging the receipt of half the agent of the company. Mr. and Mrs. De Landey Kane.

Francis G. Landon, secretary to the American Embassy to Vienna, with Mrs. Landon and their two daughters, sengers, as were Simon Lake, the sub-marine boat builder, and his wife. Others were W. B. Leeds, Mrs. Leeds and Master W. B. Leeds, Jr. Mr. Leeds in president of the Tin Trust. E. de Marchi, who two years ago was a member of the "Matropolitan Opera, House Company, and who has been little in The first of the letters was received by him Dec. 13. It was well written and indicated that the sender was desperate. The dector was directed to go to a spot near Twelfth avenue and Forriteth street and deposit the money beneath a loose stone.

"If any person accompanies you," the missive said, "or is told by you, it will only add to your peril. Your every movement is observed."

Dr. Dadirrian consulted his lawyer and then reported the matter to the pouce. At Headquarters it was said there were peculiar reasons for believ. The dector was described by him Dec. 13. It was well written and indicated that the sender was desperate of the Metropolitish Opera. House Company, and who has been living in Mexico, C. Saint-Saens, Mr. Scalabrino, of the Burcau of Information, Parist Intention of the Burcau of Information, Intention of the Burcau of Information, Parist Intention of the Burcau of Information, Intention of the Burcau of Information, Intention of the Burcau of Information of the Bu the détail of police stationed there are changed night and day.

Dr. Dadirrian goes to his place of business, at No. Il Lexington avenue, every day. Wherever he goes he is followed, and should any attempt be made on his life there is small possibility that the would-be assussin would be able to accomplish his purpose. "

Over Sixty and Poor, Says Doctor.

"I am a poor man," said-Dr. Dadirrian to an Evening World reporter to day when the old physician was roused from his bed to meet the visitor. "I know people say I am wealthy because I practised for many years and then went into the manufacturing business. It is not so, for I am more than sixty years old and poor."

The reporter then asked him if he had ever before been threatened by the Hunchagist. The old doctor jumped up with a start.

"Abi," he said, "you know of the society, then? Let us not talk of it."

Boolety, then? Let us not talk of it."

Mrs. Daddrrian, at the time, is said to have gone to Chicago.

According to the statement made by the Hunchagist. At the sime, the young woman met Kopple on a street car and the mean street the young statement made by Ute hused the him the would with him Male to policie the street of the May and the woman met Kopple on a street car and the mean street of the subject of the May and the woman met Kopple on a street car and the mount of the mean water flows in factuated with him Male to accomplish the method to increase the army undit the standard for the Japanese Governant in the standard for the Japanese Gove

but She Says She Paid an Agent,

Senator Jacob Marks has instituted an action in the Supreme Court to reover $2,500, the amount of an insurance policy in the Great Eastern Casualty and Indemnity Company, held by Albion Beck, who was killed while attempting knowledging the receipt of half the that he had paid it to the company.

Ask your

and the cheapest as well.

Grocer

WIDOWED MOTHER SUES FOR INSURANCE ON SON.

BOY OF 10 DIES

WHILE PLAYING

Proves a Sad One.

the rough-and-tumble struggle.

Neither the Jersey City police no

The Battesby boy was the son of Mr

CAUGHT WITH RING.

oman with two gold teeth." who had Minister Plenipotentiary of the Repub- $2.500 if the insured was killed by acci- a way of securing a job as a servan lic of Colombia; Vitxil Bengulat; Miss dent, expired May 19 last, and Book and decamping with the family jewels. It looked in Adams Street Police Court ert Coquelle; Victor Chalmin, who was But Mrs. Beck avers that she paid to-day as though Maggie Henley, of engaged for the Manhattan opera the amount of a year's premium in ad- No. 157 Willoughby street, might be the Maggie is undeniably a colored wom-Beck has a letter from the agent acknowledging the receipt of half the amount she paid him, and says she has two gold teeth. She was caught Christmas eve trying to pawn a diamond ring in a Bowery pawnshop. The ring has since been the whole of the annual preimum and that he had paid it to the company.

Maggle is undentably a colored women, as one side to she had two gold teeth. She was caught Christmas eve trying to pawn a diamond ring in a Bowery pawnshop. The ring has since been identified by Mrs. Jennie Borns, of from her by Maggle. Magistrate Pooley held the prisoner for trial.

Cheapest

and Best

CARDINAL TRIES TO CHECK WAVE FOOTBALL GAME OF SELF MURDER

Present from Santa to His Eminence of Balti-Little Richard Battesby more Shocked at the Increase in Suicide.

> Prelate says that moral cowardice and to the alarming increase in the number pared with absence of such tragedies in Biblical times. He writes:

"I have now lying before me the ofofficially notified. Undertaker Boylan ficial record of suicides in the United is going forward with preparations for States from 1885 to 1903, which is cal-is going forward with preparations for the funeral. He is authority for the statement that there are no marks on the boy's body, but he admits that he has received no report from a physician.

The witnesses of the death on the field tried to-day to discisim all knowledge of the circumstances. Even the names of the other players were "forgotten."

Football from Santa.

States from 1886 to 1903, which is cally oulgited to excite in every patriotic and humane breast sentiments of compassion and deep concern. These statistics show a steady increase in nineteen years in this class of crime and miscry of the field tried to-day to discisim all knowledge of the circumstances. Even the names of the other players were "forgotten."

Football from Santa.

The Battesby boy was the son of Mr.

be affirmed that in the whole narretive is on street. Jersey City. On Christinus morning he found a football among the presents and yesterday afternoon he took the ball out for play with other boys of his own age. Most of them were pupils at the parochial school on Grove street, where little Richard was one of the best students. He was not strong and was not accustomed to play in rough sports with the others.

Nevertheless, he joined in as enthusiastically as the others in playing with his new football. The little chaps lind up as they had seen real teams play. Among the players, all under a dozen years old, were James Klein, of No. IS Sixteenth street.

Those on the same side with little Richard were rushing the ball down the field. According to some who were there, the boy with the ball.

Those on the same side with little Richard were rushing the ball down the field. According to some who were there, the boy with the ball.

Not Kicked, They Say.

The boys who were playing, and their friends say that when thee ground.

Not Kicked, They Say.

The boys who were playing, and their friends say that when the crowd rusped and when they got up young Battespot of the same the boy who was tackied the bard was seen to stagger just as the steer. Caesar, For surely it could not accept fixed the safe the boy with the ball.

Not Kicked, They Say.

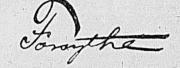

The boys who were playing, and their friends say that when the crowd rusped the lickard was seen to stagger just as the steer, by a strange incomman, the threw up his arms and the factor of right to surely about the boy who was tackied the came of the same time honorable in the father and at the sent the boy with the ball was the boy with the ball was to the boy with the ball was to the boy with the ball was facked the came of the same time honorable in the father and at the sent the boy with the ball was the command the condition of the product of the same time honorable in the father and at the sent the ball the father and at the same time honorable in the father and at the sen reeled back. Then he sain to the ground.

Nobody stepped on him or kicked him, these witnesses declare, and several went to his assistance at once. They found him insensible. A doctor was called, but before he reached the field he declared the boy had been dead for some minutes.

The body was removed to Boylan's undertaking rooms, No. 138 Pavonia avenue. One of the strangest features of the case is that no report was made of the case is that no report was made.

he is stung by the reproaches of his wife and mocked by his false friends. The words of this model of patience have been the comfort and support of all succeeding ages. The Lord gave, and the Lord hall taken away, as it hath pleased the Lord so is it done; blessed be the name of the Lorn. Every impartial judge who compares the life of Job with that of Cato will accord a higher degree of heroic virtue to the saint of the Bible than to the sace of Lica. The one yielded to the storm of adversity; the other bravely confronted. It'

General Clearance Sale

Suits, Coats, Skirts, Waists, &c.,

Will Continue To-Morrow and Saturday.

SWEEPING REDUCTIONS

In Prices Regardless of Value

Broadway, 17th and 18th Sts. For Rheumatism

Regulating the Liver and Kidneys.

It does not disturb the stomach. Afford Culet Sleep and Creates a Good Appelia-

Sea Foam Baking Powder

(REGISTERED 1869)

Infinitely Superior

ecrets of wholesome food. It is the best Cream of Tartar powder, Wholesome food is the secret of health. Sea Foam is one of the

Sold and Recommended by ACKER, MARRAIL & CONDIT CO., and all High Class Grocers

THE GENUINE OLD-FASHIONED